BENEFICIARY'S NAME: JOHN M MANCINI

We review Social Security benefits each year to make sure they keep up with the cost of living. The law does not permit an increase in benefits when there is no increase in the cost of living. So your benefit will stay the same in 2016. There was no increase in the cost of living during the past year based on the Consumer Price Index (CPI) published by the Department of Labor. The CPI is the Federal government's official measure used to calculate cost of living increases.

How Much Will I Get And When?

• Your monthly amount (before deductions) is	$1,619.90
• The amount we deduct for Medicare medical insurance is (If you did not have Medicare as of November 20, 2015, or if someone else pays your premium, we show $0.00.)	$104.90
• The amount we deduct for your Medicare prescription drug plan is (If you did not elect withholding as of November 1, 2015, we show $0.00.)	$0.00

What You Should Know

Your Medicare Part A (hospital insurance) and Part B (medical insurance) start July 2016.

What We Will Pay And When

- You will receive $866.00 for June 2016 around July 13, 2016.
- After that you will receive $866.00 on or about the second Wednesday of each month.

Information About Medicare

Your monthly premium for Medicare Part B (medical insurance) is $121.80 beginning July 2016.

IMPORTANT: A Medicare law requires some higher income persons to pay higher premiums. The law applies to premiums for Medicare Part B (medical insurance) and prescription drug coverage. The law generally affects individuals with incomes higher than $85,000 and couples with incomes higher than $170,000. We will contact the Internal Revenue Service to get information about your income. If we decide that you have to pay higher premiums, we will send a letter explaining our decision. The higher amount will be effective July 2016. For more information, please visit www.socialsecurity.gov on the Internet or call us toll-free at 1-800-772-1213 (TTY 1-800-325-0778).

We deduct Medicare medical insurance (Part B) premiums 1 month in advance.

We will start to take premiums out of your July 13, 2016 check.
